CM seeks IIM Shillong role in policy formulations

SHILLONG, DEC 6: IIM Shillong commenced its annual Business Leadership Summit with its inauguration by chief minister Conrad K Sangma.

Delivering his address, Sangma focused on how IIM Shillong is assisting the state in ameliorating its horizons and at the same time is being benefitted by the unique essence of the region itself.

Himself being a business graduate from Wharton School of University of Pennsylvania, Sangma focused on using business and entrepreneurship to help the state grow by leaps and bounds.

He also said, "My administration welcomes collaborative studies and research by institutes and students that will facilitate the government in formulating its plan and policies to best develop the state of Meghalaya."

The event concluded with Prof. D.P. Goyal, Director, IIM Shillong, extending his gratitude to the chief minister on behalf of the IIM Shillong fraternity and for kickstarting the Business Leadership Summit of IIM Shillong.

Chief minister Conrad K Sangma is presented with a momento by IIM Shillong director DP Goyal on Friday. Guardian photo
IIM Shillong Business Leadership Summit kicks-off

A CORRESPONDENT

SHILLONG, Dec 6: Chief Minister Conrad Sangma on Friday inaugurated the annual Business Leadership Summit of IIM, Shillong. The summit sees top business and corporate leaders discussing ideas that are transforming the regime they work in.

Delivering the inaugural address, Sangma focused on how IIM, Shillong is assisting the State in ameliorating its horizons and at the same time is being benefited by the unique essence of the region itself.

Sangma being a business graduate from Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, stressed on using business and entrepreneurship to help the State grow leaps and bounds.

He said, “My administration welcomes collaborative studies and research by institutes and students that will facilitate the government in formulating its plan and policies to best develop the State of Meghalaya.”

The event concluded with Prof DP Goyal, Director, IIM Shillong, extending his gratitude to the Chief Minister on behalf of the IIM fraternity and for kickstarting the Business Leadership Summit.