IIM Shillong emerges National Winners

IIM Shillong emerged as the National Winners of the WIPRO EARTHIAN Competition. Two second year PGP students Tanmay Kasliwal and Jahnvi Jethanandani along with Faculty Mentor Prof Sanjeeb Kakoty made a project on the issue of waste management in Shillong which fetched them the WIPRO EARTHIAN award, which was conferred to them in Bangaluru recently. The award was handed over by WIPRO Chairman Azim Premji. The award consists of a Plaque and a cash prize of one lakh fifty thousand rupees. It may be mentioned that IIM Shillong has won the WIPRO EARTHIAN twice before under the mentorship of Prof Kakoty. He was also conferred the coveted T.N.Khoshoo award for sustainability education instituted by the Ashoka Trust for Research in Ecology and the Environment. This is the second time Prof Sanjeeb Kakoty has brought the T.N.Khoshoo award to IIM Shillong.

IIM Shillong Celebrates Nation's 68th Republic Day

Indian Institute of Management, Shillong, celebrated the 68th Republic Day on January 26, 2017 in the presence of the Director, faculty members, and students. The proceedings commenced with a flag hoisting ceremony, which was followed by the National Anthem.

In his Republic Day address, the Director of the institute, Dr. Amitabha De, said "This Republic Day, let us resolve to work harder to make all the stakeholders of IIM Shillong proud to be associated with us, and to honor the legacy of the architects of the Indian constitution by contributing to the nation's growth." He also noted that the institute had played an instrumental role in crafting the Sports Policy of the state of Meghalaya and that IIM Shillong was proud to have set up the Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam Centre for Policy Research in collaboration with DoNER.

IIM Shillong successfully hosted the fifth edition of TEDx IIMShillong at Hotel Polo Towers, Shillong, on February 18, 2017, featuring an exceedingly diverse set of speakers who have carved out a niche for themselves in a variety of fields including social activism, culinary arts, architecture, fashion, media, and public administration. From live magic performances to TED Talk videos on classical music, the event showcased the best of ideas that the thinkers and doers across the nation had to offer.

Based on the theme 'Alchemy of Choice', this year's edition underscored the transformative power of choice. The list of speakers included Ms. Pankaj Bhadouria, winner of the first season of MasterChef India, Ms. Sheila Sri Prakash, acknowledged as one of the leading design thinkers of our age, Ms. Asha Bhat, winner of the Miss Supranational pageant in 2014, Ms. Deepika Narayan Bhardwaj, documentary filmmaker and men's rights activist, Ms. Suhani Shah, psychosomatic counsellor and illusionist, Mr. Gaurav Jai Gupta, accredited with winning ELLE's Young Creative Fashion Entrepreneurship Award in 2010, and Ms. Tilotama Varma, the first female Indian Police Officer from the state of Uttar Pradesh to be awarded the President's Police Medal.

SUSCON VI 2017: Learning, Living and Leading

The sixth edition of SusCon, the annual international conference on Sustainability organized by IIM Shillong, concluded here on Friday. The three-day conference was inaugurated in the presence of Padma Shri Jadav "Molai" Payeng, and Mr. Shankar Venkateswaran, Chief of Tata Sustainability Group on March 2nd, and was flagged off with a welcome address by Professor Sanjoy Mukherjee, SusCon chair. With 'Learning, Living, and Leading' as the central theme, this year's edition hosted four plenary sessions in addition to several technical sessions on a wide array of topics like Green Marketing, CSR practices, and Micro-finance for Sustainability.

"Sustainability is not a cost, it is an investment" said Mr. Venkateswaran, the Guest of Honor, while emphasizing the need for efficiently utilizing corporate resources to manage value chains. A host of dignitaries, including Dr. Varghese Manaloor, Chair Ecology and Management, University of Alberta, Dr. A Patil, Head, Economics & Management Department at North Eastern Hill University among others graced the conference with their presence.
