

Faculty Corner

Prof Natalie W Kharkongor was invited as the Chief Guest at the Adult Literacy Teachers' Training Program, held on the 18th Sept. 2010 at Srimanta Sankardev Cultural Center.

Prof Keya Sengupta recently visited New Delhi as a member of the All India Expert Committee of Indian Council of Social Science Research(ICSSR), New Delhi.The Committee is constituted for the evaluation of Project Proposals and Senior fellowships at the all India level.

Prof.P.Saravanan, evaluated and adjudicated a Ph.D Thesis in Corporate Secretaryship entitled, " The Sarbanes-Oxley Act and Its Effects on the Governance of Indian Companies in USA" as an External Examiner for Alagappa University, Karaikudi.

Director's Engagement

24th - 28th September 2010

- Discussion with Royal Group on Faculty Development Program.
- Attended the Board Meeting of Don Bosco University, Guwahati
- Attended the Annual General Meeting of Andrew Yule & Co. Ltd.
- Attended a Seminar on "German Dual Management Program" conducted by Mr. Peter Rechmann, Project Manager Handwerkskammer Koblenz, International Project held at Indo German Training Center, Kolkata.

Health And Hospital Management Programme @ IIM Shillong.

A certificate course for (Six Months) on Health and Hospital Management was organized at RGIIM Shillong as a part of the institute commitment to the social obligation to North East under the aegis of CEDNER .

The course curriculum was developed in consultation with the management professionals of RGIIM,Shillong ; keeping in view the challenges in Health Care Services so as to equip the Hospitals professionals and operational efficiency and recourse utilization.

The Syllabus was comprehensive by taking a Cue from the post Graduates Programs in the discipline conducted at Apex institutions like , A.I.I.M.S ,P.G.I Chandigarh etc.

It was tailor-made to suit the working hospitals professionals as a part time course with classes in the evening consisting of one project work seminar, case studies and interactive lectures. Eighty (80) sessions were conducted during the six months (120hrs of lecture discussion; project work; case studies; seminar and field visit (120hrs).

The project work was assign to the candidates from their own work situation.At the end of the course evaluation was made with a Objective Type Multiple Choice Questions. Based on the evaluation of the project and the test the candidates were issued Certificate from RGIIM, Shillong.

Forty (40) participants applied for admission through a newspaper advertisement and RGIIM Website . Only Thirty (30) candidates were admitted on the basis of their qualifications and availability for the classes as schedule.

The valedictory and distribution of certificates was held on 21st Sep, 2010.Mr. Conrad Sangma, Leader of Opposition Meghalaya Legislative Assembly presided over the function and the Director RGIIMS, Prof. A.K Dutta distributed the certificates in presence of the faculty and limited number of invited guest at RGIIM auditorium.

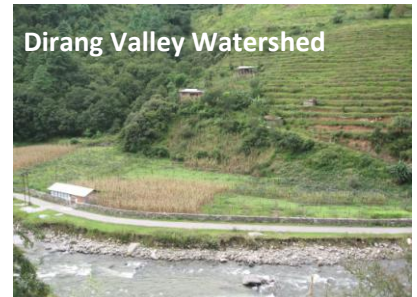

Prof A K Dutta, Director RGIIMS alongwith Mr. Conrad Sangma Leader of Opposition,Meghalaya Legislative Assembly and others with the participants of Health And Hospital Management.

HRD for Watershed Management for economic Development and Rural prosperity

Prof. T. K. Giri has participated as an Expert on behalf of the Institute in the NREGS Projects Consultation Meet for the Impact Assessment Project of Nagaland, Mizoram and Tripura States at NIRD, Guwahati during 20th & 21st September 2010. Prof. Giri also delivered as an expert in the NEC sponsored Programme on HRD for Watershed Management for economic Development and Rural prosperity at NERIWALM, Tezpur during 23rd September 2010 on specific issues on "Convergence between Watershed Programme and MG-NREGS" and "Best Practices in watershed Management". On 24-26th September Prof. Giri has visited the Dirang valley Watershed Project Management demonstration areas in West Kameng District at Arunachal Pradesh along with the Delegation team from IFAD, NEREWALM, NIRD, A.P Horticulture Deptt. Kiwi gardens, Green apple, Walnut and Orange cultivations and rainfed farming are found to be the major economic activity in the demonstration areas.

Dirang Valley Watershed

Kiwi Plantation

Shanti Valley