IIM Shillong signs MoU with NEIAH

The Indian Institute of Management Shillong has entered into agreement through an MoU with the newest Institute in town, the North Eastern Institute of Ayurveda and Homeopathy (NEIAH) to provide medical services (Ayurvedic & Homeopathy) to all contract staff free of cost. The MoU was signed on 15th December 2010.

Doctors from NEIAH would be available for the purpose on all working days, wherein medicines which are available with NEIAH will be provided free of cost to them. Students, Faculty, Officers and permanent staff will however be given free medical care but pay for the medicines exclusively. With the rise in cost of medical care, this strategic move by the founding Director Prof AK Dutta has been welcomed by the IIMS fraternity at large for which appreciation has been conveyed to him for his persistent effort to ensure the well being of one and all at IIMS.

Dr. S.P. Bhattacharjee, Director NEIAH who was personally present during the occasion said, "NEIAH would like to facilitate for the IIM staff with new facilities of Health Care System as a mutual exchange of Institutional support."

Incidentally, IIM Shillong has advocated supporting the local populace to as far an extent as possible. From free lunches to Christmas vouchers for the contract staff and immediate family members, the Institute has been supporting them for their sincerity and commitment to work. In the past, through the Director's initiative, all contract staff were given free Computer education with the quest to empower them with the basic knowledge of computers which have helped a good number to find better sources of gainful employment elsewhere.
