ABOUT IDEA/VENTURE

Crochet Haven is dedicated to preserving the beauty of handcrafted artistry through eco-conscious crochet creations. Using reusable and responsibly sourced yarns, the venture produces charming keychains, plushies, and crochet florals, along with select décor and apparel pieces. In addition to promoting sustainable craftsmanship, Crochet Haven also empowers local women by providing skill-based work opportunities that support both their financial growth and creative expression.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Founder – Crochet Haven | 2023 - Present · Running a sustainable crochet venture with customized handcrafted products
Writing Corrector – EF Education First | 2023 - 2025 · Reviewed written assignments and provided accurate feedback.

Ibajanai Lyngdoh

Ibajanai Lyngdoh is the founder of Crochet Haven. She is a commerce graduate and an early-stage entrepreneur currently building a sustainable handcrafted product venture. She also brings professional experience as a Writing Corrector with EF Education First, an international organization, which has strengthened her communication abilities and customer-focused approach. With two years of entrepreneurial experience, she is now seeking mentorship to scale operations, expand market reach, and enhance the social and economic impact of her venture.
